

What we've done

8,000

messages sent to legislators in 2020

Calls to action

Engaging with legislators is critical at all levels of government. Our calls to action have allowed members to contact their legislators with the click of a button.

Capitol Hill Fly-in

In March, 50+ IREM members held meetings with legislators to discuss the NFIP reauthorization and the SAFE Banking Act

100+

meetings on Capitol Hill

52

letters sent during the COVID crisis

Coalition letters

IREM has signed onto letters to Congress and other government agencies advocating for relief for the real estate industry

What we're doing

Working with coalitions

IREM works with coalitions of organizations such as NAR, NAA, NMHC, and BOMA, to amplify our voices and affect change

400+

industry organizations

4

Public Policy
webinars

Educating our members

It's important for our members to stay informed. Recordings are available at irem.org/advocacy/public-policy-webinars

Advocating for our members

While Congress works on the next phase of COVID relief, we continue to advocate for our members, their employees, and their tenants

20,000

IREM members

What's ahead in 2021

Advocacy will continue to be a top priority for our members, their business, and their clients.

The IREM Government Affairs team has a number of initiatives planned for 2021, including the Capitol Hill Fly-in, Congressional Briefing, quarterly webinars, and In-district Meetings.

We will also keep providing members valuable resources such as the Public Policy Priorities, Policy Statements, Government Affairs Digest, and our Advocacy Action Center.